There's a hero
in each child

Why Hélène Nicole in your school?

Because a strong and confident child is a successful child

- Do your students have good self-esteem and self-confidence, or do they often compare themselves to others?
- Do they have a strong sense of self, an inner direction and faith that they can reach their potential and that the world support them?
- Are they equipped with tools to practice care, leadership, empathy and inclusion in their relationship to self and others?

Who is H  l  ne Nicole ?

H  l  ne Nicole is an artist, an entrepreneur and a motivational speaker. She is passionate about education and transformation. She is an example of following your bliss and making your dreams come true. After more than 1200 shows in schools and hundreds of workshops across Canada, she discovered a new quest: to teach others how to bring a dream to reality. In 2017, She took a sabbatical to study, reflect and reinvent herself. From this came a two-book deal, and two new stage presentations.

Je m'aime un peu beaucoup is a one-woman show in which H  l  ne Nicole regals her audience with intimate story of inner growth through tales of adventures, soft original ballads and funny skits. A 'live' album of the songs is available . In her books published by Editions de l'Apoth  ose, J'illimite ma vie personnelle (available in English in December 22), and J'illimite ma vie professionnelle, H  l  ne Nicole shares with us the secrets and tools that have allowed her to achieve all her dreams. Her young audience workshop in a show Crois en toi (Believe in yourself) is a tool for educational leaders to help young people reach their full potential. H  l  ne Nicole also produced 'Choosing the right one', an audio book.

You can find her on stage, online and here on video.

The best leaders in education create heroes.

Hélène Nicole : Why I think Believe in yourself is my most important work :

I created this workshop-show to support both educational leaders and students in growing towards more love, respect, benevolence and faith that we all can reach our potential.

Whatever values your school aims to teach, this show can adapt to support your goal.

Leaders in education will be happy to get new ideas and tools that will allow students to take the unique place that belongs to them in the world and to contribute to society without compromising their true identity.

Audience

- Families, schools, librairies or cultural centers;
- Children 10-19 years old, (4-12th grade). (Each show is adapted to meet client's goals and audience level).
- 60-90 minutes (For older groups, the show includes a 30 min Q&A from the audience).
- Material : A white sheet and a pencil, or color marker or crayons.
- Space required: Each participant needs space to be able to write on his-her own sheet.
- Hélène Nicole brings a amp, mic and guitar that is suitable for audiences of about 250 persons. Size can range from a classroom to a gym or theatre.
